Hartlepool and District u3a

Data Protection Policy

1 Scope of the policy

This policy applies to the work of Hartlepool and Districtu3a. The policy sets out the requirements that Hartlepool and Districtu3a has to collect and process information for membership purposes. The policy details how personal information will be collected, stored, and managed in line with data protection principles and the General Data Protection Regulation (UKGDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018. The policy is reviewed on an ongoing basis by committee members to ensure that Hartlepool and District u3a remains compliant. This policy should be read in tandem with Hartlepool and District u3a's Privacy Policy.

2 Why this policy exists

This data protection policy ensures Hartlepool and Districtu3a:

- Complies with data protection law and follows good practice
- Protects the rights of members
- Is open about how it stores and processes members data
- Protects itself from the risks of a data breach

3 General guidelines for committee members and group leaders

- The only people able to access data covered by this policy should be those who need to communicate with or provide a service to Hartlepool and District u3a members.
- Hartlepool and District u3a will provide induction training to committee members and group convenors to help them understand their responsibilities when handling data.
- Committee Members and group convenors should keep all data secure, by taking sensible precautions and following the guidelines below. • Strong passwords must be used, and they should never be shared.
- Data should not be shared outside of the u3a unless with prior consent and/or for specific and agreed reasons. Examples would include Gift Aid information provided to HMRC or information provided to the distribution company for the Trust publications.
- Member information should be refreshed periodically to ensure accuracy, via the membership renewal process or when policy is changed.
- Additional support will be available from the Third Age Trust where uncertainties or incidents regarding data protection arise.

4 Data protection principles

The General Data Protection Regulation identifies key data protection principles:

- Principle 1 Fair and Lawful: Personal data shall be processed lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner
- Principle 2 Purpose Limitation: Personal data must be collected for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes and not further processed in a manner that is incompatible with those purposes; further processing for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes shall not be considered to be incompatible with the initial purposes.
- Principle 3 Data minimisation: The collection of personal data must be adequate, relevant, and limited to what is necessary in relation to the purposes for which they are processed;
- Principle 4 Accuracy: Personal data held should be accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date; every reasonable step must be taken to ensure that personal data that are inaccurate, having regard to the purposes for which they are processed, are erased or rectified without delay;
- Principle 5 Storage limitation: Personal data must kept in a form which permits identification of data subjects for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for the which the personal data are processed; personal data may be stored for longer periods insofar as the personal data will be processed solely for archiving purposes in the public interest , scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes subject to implementation of the appropriate technical and organisational measures required by the GDPR in order to safeguard the rights and freedoms of individuals;
- Principle 6 Integrity and Confidentiality: Personal data must be processed in accordance a manner that ensures appropriate security of the personal data, including protection against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction, or damage, using appropriate technical or organisational measures.
- Principle 7 Accountability: The data controller is responsible for ensuring compliance with the principles and must be able to demonstrate this.
- Principle 8: Rights of individuals: Data subjects have rights regarding their personal data including access, rectification and erasure.

5 Lawful, fair and transparent data processing

Hartlepool and District u3a requests personal information from potential members and members for membership applications and for sending communications regarding members' involvement with the u3a. Members will be informed as to why the information is being requested and what the information will be used for. The lawful basis for obtaining member information is due to the legitimate contractual relationship that the u3a has with individual members. In addition, members will be asked to provide consent for specific processing purposes such as the taking of photographs _ Hartlepool and District u3a members will be informed as to who they need to contact should they wish for their data not to be used for specific purposes for which they have provided consent. Where these requests are received, they will be acted upon promptly and the member will be informed as to when the action has been taken.

6 Processed for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes

Members will be informed as to how their information will be used and the Committee of Hartlepool and Districtu3a will seek to ensure that member information is not used inappropriately. Appropriate use of information provided by members will include:

2.13 Data Breach Notification

Were a data breach to occur action will be taken to minimise the harm. This will include ensuring that all Hartlepool and District u3a Committee Members are made aware that a breach has taken place and how the breach occurred. The Committee shall then seek to rectify the cause of the breach as soon as possible to prevent any further breaches. The Chair of Hartlepool and District u3a will contact National Office as soon as possible after the breach has occurred to notify of the breach. A discussion will take place between the Chair and National Office as to the seriousness of the breach, action to be taken and, where necessary, the Information Commissioner's Office would be notified. The Committee shall also contact the relevant u3a members to inform them of the data breach and actions taken to resolve the breach.

Where a u3a member feels that there has been a breach by the u3a, a committee member will ask the member to provide an outline of the breach. If the initial contact is by telephone, the committee member will ask the u3a member to follow this up with an email or a letter detailing their concern. The alleged breach will then be investigated by those members of the committee who are not in any way implicated in the breach. Where the committee needs support or if the breach is serious, they should notify National Office. The u3a member should also be informed that they can report their concerns to National Office if they don't feel satisfied with the response from the u3a. Breach matters will be subject to a full investigation, records will be kept and all those involved notified of the outcome.
